Eres of adminnestration was graunted vnto Anna Barstow to adminnester on the estate of Wiltam Barstow, late deceased.

*Att this Court, Christopher Winter and his daughter, Martha Hewitt, appeared, being bound ouer to the Court on suspiscion of comitting insest with each other; and after strict and pticular examination of them, the Court saw cause to comitt them both to ward for the grounds and reasons following: -

The principall grounds moucing the Court to suspend the finall issue of the case respecting Christopher Winter and Martha, his daughter, is because there is great feares that a very hainous and capitall crime hath bine comitted by them, viz?, insest of the highest nature, which, although it can not be att Osent proved by full and cleare testimony, yett it did very much face vpon them in many respects.

- 1. In Christopher Winters sending to invite Hewett or Tower to his said daughter some little time after shee conceived with child, when as not longe before they were both rejected in theire suite for her.
- 2. Because the said Martha will not discouer the father of her child, it is an argument that some pson is the father of it that shee hath more then ordinary grounds to be vnwilling to disclose.
- 3. Because of Winters hastening the marriage, and some expressions of his declaring that hee had noe comfort in the match, and his and his daughters carriage that day that they were married.
- 4. Winters acknowlidgment, that after hee had knowlidge of his said daughters being withchild, — being, as hee said, informed by Hewitt, — hee did not bring them together and enquire into it, nor reproue or beare witnes against her wickednes, as would have become a father that was innosent.
- His indulgence to his said daughter since this wickednes, although knowne formerly to be very austeer to his children.
- 6. His intensions to have gon for England about the time this cuill began to be taken notice of.
- 7. His telling of Hewitt that his said daughter was apt to be frighted; and was see affrighted by himself once, coming late home, that shee fell into a swound, &c, as the said Hewitt doth testify.
- I, Thomas Hewitt, aged sixty yeares or therabouts, testify, that my son, John Hewitt, was att home att my house att the time that Martha, his wife, said that shee had that abuse offered her that shee proued withchild; further, I testify that I went to her father Winters house within one weekes time, as I

Then I asked her if her husband were the father of it; this I did seuerall times before I had an answare of her; her father said that shee might answare mee to that questian; and shee answared and said the child was not her husbands; further, her father Winter said that I should know in time and place convenient whose the child was; and further saith not.

NATH: MORTON, Secry.

The testimony of John Hewitt, aged twenty seauen yeares or therabouts, doth testify, that some certaine time after I was marryed, my father Winter, being in discourse with mee and my wife, asked mee of what constitution I was off; I replyed, I was subject to be angry, as well as other men, but did not vsually expresse it in rageing tearmes. My father Winter replyed, "My daughter is of a very loueing disposition, but you must have a care of frighting of her; for," hee said, "I came from the mill, and did but give her a tapp with my horse rodd, and she droped downe in a swound;" but hee thought shee would have turned about and throwne somthing att his head, Further, when my wife was in trauell, my father Winter and I being in a house together by ourselnes some distance off from his dwelling house, hee said his daughter had a hard time, and hee feared that the midwife should charge it vpon her now to tell whose the child was; and I, the said Hewitt, replyed, shee would make her tell if shee could. Hee said, if hee had spoken to her, shee would not nor durst not, for shee should tell in time convenient; and further saith not.

That which the Court grounds theire judgment vpon is, -

For that att the treaty att Taunton Phillip and his councel did acknowlidge that they had bine in a preparation for warr against vs; and that not grounded vpon any injury sustained from vs, nor pronocation giuen by vs, but from theire owne naughty harts, and because hee had formerly violated and broken sollemne concannts made and renewed to vs; hee then freely tendered (not being in a capasitic to be kept faithfull by any other bonds) to resigne vp all his English armes, for our future occuritie in that respect; hee failed greatly in pformance therof by eccrett conveying away and carrying home scucrall guns that might and should have bine then deliuered, and not giuing them vp since, according to his engagement, nor soe far as is in his power, as appeers in that many guns are knowne still to be amongst the Indians that line by him, and not soe much as giueing order to some of his men, that are vnder his vinediate comann, about the bringing in of theire armes.

In his indeauoring since the treaty to render vs odiouse to our naighbour collonie, by false reports, complaints, and suggestions.

And his refusing or avoiding a treaty with vs concerning these and other matters that are justly offenciae to vs, notwithstanding his late engagement, as well as former, to submitt to the kings authoritie, and the authoritie of this collonic.

It was also ordered by the Court, that the armes of the Indians of Namassakett and Assowamsett, that were feched in by Major Winslow, and those that were with him, are confiscate and forfeite from the said Indians, for the grounds aboue expressed, they being in complyance with Phillipe in his late plott, and yett would neither by our Gou* order nor by Phillips desire, bring 1671. 5 June. This Court have agreed and voated, that some force be raised and sent to the Indians att Saconett, to feeh in theire armes, and in defect therof theire psons, as occation may require.

And for the management of this enterprise it is refered to the councell of warr, or soc many of them as shall meet, soe as they be nine in number, vizo, the major pte of them concurring.

This oath is otherwise ororders of July Court, anno 1671, in this booke.

You shall reddily appear on any sumons directed vnto you by the presidered; see the dent of the councell of warr, att such place or places as you shalbe ordered vnto by the said summons, vnlesse any ineuitable prouidence shall or may hinder youer said appeerance, on which occations and meetings you shall faithfully, with respect to the glory of God and the good and welfare of this jurisdiction, afoard vouer best aduice and councell in all matters of importance and waighty concernment (or soe seeming) that may or shalbe psented before you; in reference to the continuance of peace or nessesitated warr, as occation may require; you shall faithfully keep cecrett all such expeditions and achieuements as may or shalbe ordered and contrined by the councill of warr, tending to the generall peace and good of this collonie of N. The next page forward containes an order of the Generall Court holden att New Plymouth, June the 16th, 1671, in answare to a petition from many of the inhabitants of Scittuate, dated March the scauenth, 1670, in reference to theire vadeuided lands, as followeth:—

*By an order of this Court of October, 36, it appears the towne of Scittnate was allowed, and the purchasers and freemen were comissionated, to dispose of the lands thereof for the accomodation of a society or township; and what such trustees did within the compas of theire comission or order must be alowed and owned. But it appeers not to vs, that it was in theire power by that order to deriue and pas ouer theire power and trust in whole or in pte vnto others, neither did they since procure the allowance of this Court soc to doc; and therfore wee judge theire acte of the 13th of December, 47, to be vnwarrantable and invallid, wherin they resigne up the power of disposing of the townes lands vnto the whole inhabitants of the towne; and that if then they would and did lay downe theire comission, it did att the same instant returne to the Court, from whence it was received; and the Court doth now declare theire acceptance and confeirmation of what the said trustees did vnto the said 13th of December in reference vnto any graunts of lands that they made in propriety vnto any inhabitants of that place, and doe further alow of and by our psent acte confeirme all after graunts of lands in propriety that have since that time bin made by the towne, (although not see regular and orderly as should have bin;) and takeing notice by many suites, contestes, plaints, and petitions, that the said towne are very vnsettled and vnresolued vnto whom the right of comous appertaines, and that by reason therof many vnworthy psons in that towne take advantage to make stripp and wast of theire timber. to the townes great damage and prejudice, and because such appears to be the condition of that towne that they can not of themselues reclaime nor suppresse such trespassors, nor settle the right of the comons for theire future peace, this Court, ypon the grounds about mensioned, and as fathers of the comon wealth being alsoe studious of the peace and prosperitie of that plantation, not seing any other or better way to effect theire settlement in reference to the Pmises, doe see reason to order, and doe heerby appoint, that a comittee of eight meet psons, whoe are supposed propriators of that towne, be indifferently chosen out of both pties to debate, determine, and settle the matter, soe much in controuersy, respecting youer right in comons theire proportion, and to prouide such orders as may be effectuall to preserue the towne from ruine and spoile as respecting the same; and two or three of the majestrates wilbe healpfull therin, if desired.

The psons appointed by the Court are, Capt James Cudworth, Cornett Studson, Isacke Chettenden, and Leiftenant Bucke on the one pte, and John Turner, Senir, John Turner, Junir, John Bryant, Senir, and John Daman on the other pte; and this Court doth comissionate and fully authorize and impower the abouemensioned to heer, debate, determine, and settle the right of the comons of that towne, and to proportion it according to the greater or lesser rights of the seuerall inhabitants therof, and to pserue the comons from wast and spoyle for the future; and what the abouesaid eight psons, or any fine or more of them concurring, shall order respecting the priises, shalbe valled and binding; and that they apply themselues to issue it between this and next Octobert Court; and if they doe not or can not soe agree as to attaine the end intended, (namly, the settlement of psons according to theire just rights and the pseruation of the comons from spoyle,) that they make theire returne to the said Court, whoe hold themselves bound to take what further course the case may require for the townes good; and what nessesary charge may arise in the procecution of this order, to be bourne by such as haue interest in the vadeuided lands of the towne of Scittuate according to theire seuerall proportions therin.

It is not intended by this order that the saw mill built by Mr Tilden and others should be deprived of any just privilidg therento appertaining by vertue of the townes order or contract with the builders.

This was otherwise ordered by reason of the agreement made with the squa sachem of Sacouett, which is as followeth: -

July 24, 1671. Articles of Agreement made and concluded between the Court of New Plymouth and Awashunckes, the Squa Sachem of Saconett, as followeth.

Impr. In that wee are in some measure satisfied with her vaulentary coming in now att last, and with her submitting herselfe vnto vs, yett that wee expect shee should give some meet satisfaction for the charge and trouble shee hath hitherto put vs vpon by her soe longe standing out against the many tenders of peace wee haue made to her and her people.

And that if the psons and estates of such as wee are nessesitated to take armes against will not defray the charge of the expedition, that shee shall beare some due proportion of the charge. - *Seucrall Concusions agreed on by the Councell of Warr att theire Meeting held att Plymouth on the 23 of August, 1671, as followeth.
- 1. The councell of warr, haucing scriously considered of the case in reference to the Phillipe, the cheife sachem of Pacanacutt, hee haucing neglected to answare his ingagement to bringe in his armes att the day appointed, and alsoe in his not coming in to giue the reason therof, being required thervnto, and his vukind carriages towards vs as otherwise, see in his indeauoring to insence our naighbour collonic against vs by misinformations, and by his insolent carriages and expressions of vs and against vs, and likewise by his entertaining of many strange Indians which might ptend danger towards vs; in special, by his entertaining of diners Saconett Indians, professed enimies to this collonic, and this against good coancell giarn him by his best frinds; the pmises considered, doe vnanimously agree and conclude, that the said Phillip hath violated and couenant plighted with this collonic att Taunton in Aprill last.
- 2. It is vnanimously agreed and concluded by the said councell, that wee are nessessifly called to cause the said sachem to make his psouall appearance to make his purgation in reference to the paises; which incase of his refusell, the councell, according to what att psent appears, doe determine it nessesary to indeauor his reducement by force; and inasmuch as the controversy, which hath seemed to by more emeadately between him and vs, doth concerne all the English plantations, it is therefore determined to state the case to our naighbour collonies of the Massachusetts and Rhode Hand; and if by theire waighty advice to the contrary wee are not discreted from our psent determinations, to signify vnto them, that if they looke vpon themselus concerned to engage in the case with vs against a comon chimic, it shalbe well accepted as a naighbourly kindnes, which wee shall hold ourselves obliged to repay when Providence may see dispose that wee hase oppertunitie.

Accordingly, 4ers were despatched and sent from the councell, one vnto the said Phillip, the said sachem, to require his psonall appearance att Plymouth on the 13th day of September next in reference to the pticulares about mencioned against him; this letter was sent by M^e James Walker, one of the councell, and hee was ordered to request the companie of M^e Roger Williams and M^e James Browne to goe with him att the delinery of the said letter.

And an other letter was sent to the Gour and Councell of the Massachusetts by the hands of Mr John Freeman, one of our majestrates, and a third was directed to the Gour and Councell of Rhode Hand, and sent by Mr Thomas Hinckley and Mr Constant Southworth, two other of our majestrates, whoe are ordered by our Conneell with the letter to vnfold our psent state of matters relateing to the pmises, and to certify them also more certainly of the time of the meeting together in reference to engagement with the Indians, if theire be a going forth, which wilbe on the 20 of September next.

23 August. [Prence, Governor.]

It was further ordered by the Councell, that those formerly pressed shall remaine vuder the same impresment vntill the next meeting of the said Councell on the 13th day of September next, and soc also vntill the intended expedition is issued; vulesse they shall see cause to alter them, or adde or detrate from them, as occation may require.

And that all other matters remaine as they were in way of preparation to the said expedition, vntill wee shall see the mind of God further by the pticulares forenamed, improved for that purpose.

It was further ordered by the Councell, that all the townes within this jurisdiction shall in the interem be sollisitously carefull to prouid for theire safety by convenient watches and wardings, and carrying theire arms to the meetings on the Lords dayes, in such manor as will best stand with theire pitculares and the comon saftey.

And in priculare, they ordered, that a guard shalbe provided for the saftey of the Gournors pson, during the time of the above named troubles and expeditions.

And the Councell were sumoned by the presedent to make theire psonall appearance att Plymouth, on the thirteenth day of September next, to attend such further busines as shalle then pseuded by Prouidence in reference to the pmises. Is september.

September, [*56,]

*On the 13th of September, 1671, the councell of warr appeared according to theire sumons, but Phillip, the sachem, appeared not, but in sted therof repaired to the Massachusetts, and made complaint against vs to diuers of the gentlemen in place there, whoe wrote to our Gout by way of pswasion, to aduise the Councell to a complyance with the said sachem, and tendered theire healp in the acheineing therof, declaring in sume that they resented not his offence see deeply as wee did, and that they doubted whether the concannts and engagements that Phillip and his predecessors had plighted with vs would plainly importe that hee had subjected himselfe and people and country to vs any further then as in a naighborly and frindly correspondency.

The Councell, haueing deliberated vpon the pinises, dispatched away letters declareing theire thankfull acceptance of theire kind proffer, and invited the confissioners of the Massachusetts and Conceticutt, (they then being in the Bay,) & some other gentlemen, to come to Plymouth and aford vs theire help; and accordingly on the 24th of September, 1671, Mr John Winthorpe, Gour of Conceticott, Major Generall Leuerett, Mr Thomas Danforth, Captaine William Dauis, with diuers others, came to Plymouth, and had a faire and deliberate hearing of the controuersy between our collonic and the said sachem, Phillip, hee being psonally psent, there being also competent interpretors, both English and Indians, att which meeting it was proued by sufficient testimony to the conviction of the said Phillip, and satisfaction of all that audience, both the said gentlemen and others, that hee had broken his coucnant made with our collonic att Taunton, in Aprill last, in diners pticulares, as also carryed very vukindly vuto vs diners waves.

- 1. In that hee detained and neglected to bringe in the resedue of his English armes, not delinered att Taunton, according to his engagement, and that notwithstanding hee was allowed competent time, yea, his time enlarged, yett hee neglected as aforsaid, and instead of bringing them in, improved the oppertunity of time rather to make them out of the way.
- That hee had carryed insolently and proudly towards vs on scuerall occations, in refusing to come down to our Court, when sent for to have speech with him, to procure a right vnderstanding of matters in difference betwixt vs.
- That hee entertained, harboured, and abetted diners Indians, not of his owne men, which were vagabonds, our proffessed enimies, who, leaveing their owne sachem, repaired to him and were harboured.
- 4. That notwithstanding the great wronge hee had done vnto vs in these and such like respects, instead of repairing to the Court, and to endeauer a reconcilliation, hee takes his journey into the Massachusetts Bay, with seuerid his councell, indeauoring to insinuate himselfe into the majestrates, and to misrepresent matters vnto them, whoe are our good frinds and naighbors, and what in him lay, therby to worke mischeife and difference between them and vs.
- 5. That hee had shewed great incinillitie to divers of ours att severall times, in speciall vnto M^r James Browne, whoe was sent by the Court on speciall occation as a messenger vnto him, and vnto Hugh Cole att another time, &c.

The gentlemen forenamed, takeing notice of the pmises, haucing fully heard what the said Phillip could say for himselfe, haucing free libertie see to doe without interruption, adjudged that hee had don vs a great deal of wronge and injury respecting the pmises, and also abused them by carrying lyes and falce storyes to them, and see misrepresenting matters vnto them, and they p-waded him to make an acknowlidgment of his fault, and to seek for reconcilliation, expressing themselves that there is a great difference between what hee asserted to the gou'ment in the Bay and what hee could now make out concerning his pretended wronges; and such had bine the wronge and damage that hee had done and procured vnto the collonic as ought not to be bourne without competent repairation and satisfaction; yea, that hee by his insolencyes had in probabilitie occationed more mischeife from the Indians amongst them then had fallen out in many yeares before; they pswaded him therfore to humble himselfe vnto the majestrates, and to amend his wayes, if hee expected peace, and that if hee went on in his refractory way, hee must expect to smart for it, the pticulares wherof are more att large to be seen in a full discourse between our majestrates and the gentlemen aforsaid and him, which is extant. In fine, severall propositions were drawne vp and read, vnto which Governor.] hee was left to accept of or reject, as hee should see cause, in reference vnto his entering into a new couenant with vs; and alsoe in reference to a way of reparation of some pete of the wronge don vnto vs, the contents wherof are as followeth, by him accepted of and signed vnto.

*This Court, att the former session, takeing notice of the longe continued difference between John Cooke, of Dartmouth, and many of the inhabitants and purchasers of that place, and judging it difficult for them to put themselues into a capassitic of ending it without the Courts interposing to theire healp, did then direct an order to the said towne and purchasers, to appear att the adjournment in July instant, in theire psons or by theire deligates, to attend a finall issue of the abouesaid controversyes. They, soe appearing att the Court, agreed joyntly to refer the whole matter of difference between the said John Cooke and the towne of Dartmouth or purchasers, respecting all theire publicke or comon transactions, to the majestrates of this Court, whoe, after a full hearing of pleas on both sydes, mannaged by John Smith, Samuell Hickes, and Peleg Tripp, in the behalfe of the purchasers, and well considered therof, doe award and determine as followeth:—

In reference vnto the towne of Dartmouth, it is ordered by the Court, that wheras an apparent neglect hath bine for the two yeares last past of the gathering in of the sume of fifteen pounds a yeare, according to the order of Court, to be kept in stocke, towards the support of such as may dispence the word of God vnto them, it being neglected the last yeare in pretence that those that were appointed by the Court to receive it, and improve it for the ends aforsaid, refused soe to doe, it is now ordered by this Court, that the sume of fifteen pounds be this yeare levied to be as a stocke for the vse aforsaid, to be payed and delivered vnto the constable of Dartmouth, in good and currant countrey pay, to be by him retained and keep vntill hee shall receive further order from the Court for the dispose of it.

Att this Court it was agreed by and between M^{*} Constant Southworth and Phillip, the sachem, in reference to the land att att Assowamsett Pond, that wheras the land purchased of the said sachem there was formerly to goe three quarters of a mile broad, and to goe oner Wachemocussett Brooke, it is now bounded by the said brooke below, and soe to goe vp by a pond; and what is wanting below by reason the breadth is cutt short by the said brooke, it is to be made vp abone.

In reference vnto a companie of natines now in costody, brought in to Plymouth, being men, weomen, and children, in number one hundred and twelne, vpon seriouse and deliberate consideration and agitation conserning them, the conclusion is as followeth: that wheras, vpon examination, it is found that securall of them have bine actors in the late rising and warr of the Indians against vs, and the rest complyers with them therin, which they have done contrary to engagement and concurant made and plighted with this collonic, which they have pfidiously broken, as appeareth further alsoe in that they did not discouer that puisions plott which Phillip, with others, completed against vs, which hath caused the destruction of seuerall of vs, by losse of lines and estates, and still held in danger therby, the pmises considered as aforsaid, the councell adjudged them to be sold, and denoted vnto servitude, excepting some few of them, which, vpon speciall consideration, are to be otherwise disposed of, and the Treasurer is appointed by the councell to make sale of them in the countryes behalfe.

The Examination of the said Indians before the Councell in Reference to the Émises.

Peter, (Awashuncks son,) being asked the reason of their coming hither, answared, because hee and the Indians of Saconett desired to settle there againe; vnto which was replyed as followeth: What reason hane you to expect that youer request heerin should be graunted, since you have broken youer engagements with vs by joyning with the sachem Phillip att Mount Hope and other Indians, our professed enimies, and haue bin copartenors with them in all assaults and enterprisses against vs, in which said hostile attemptes many of ours have lost theire lines, habitations, and estates? And you must not thinke that wee can passe over matters of such a high nature soe shighly. Wee are not willing to vallue the blood of our English frinds att soe low a rate. You are neuer able to make satisfaction for the wronge, nor make good the damage you have don vs by vouer pfiduous dealings in this respect. Youer way had bine, when you saw the said Phillip and other our enimies to rise vp in rebel-26

28 June. WINSLOW, GOUR. lion against vs, to have declined them and repaired to the English, and placed youer schees vnder our protection, &c.

Then Peter said they had not bin actiue in fighting with the English, but fledd away for feare.

Ques. Why did you feare the English?

Ans. When the English army went out, wee were afraid, and desired to go over to Rhode Hand; but the younge men there kept such a strict watch that wee could not get over in saftey. Then wee were forced to hyde oursclues in swampes; and the English army came and burnt our houses; and wee vnderstanding that the Narragansetts were frinds to the English, wee weut to them.

Questian. Did the Indians burne the English houses before the army came? Answar. Yee, they burned theire forsaken houses.

Quest. Did the English doe you any wrong att any time, or speak high or threating words to you that scared you? Speake freely, without feare.

Answ. The English neuer did vs any hurt or wronge to this day; if they had, wee would speake of it.

Gorge, another of the three Indians, said, that att the first breakeing forth of the warr, diucrs of them satt still and minded theire worke att home; but some of theire Indians did then goe to Phillip, and fight with him against the English.

Peter and Gorge againe desired the goument freer to give them leave to live softwhere within our liberties, and they would be subject to the English, and desired that the English would propound tearmes, and they and all theire companic would consent to them; for they had noe cause to be angry with the English, who had don them noe wronge.

To which was answared, Wee have found you soe pfiduous, that wee must have some good eccurity for youer fidelitie before wee can graunt youer desires.

Chowohumma, allies Dauid, said, Wee cannot make satisfaction for the wronge don; but if our weemen and children can be eccured, wee will doe any seruice wee can by fighting against the enimie. They further said, that Succanowassucke was the first man that stired vp the Indians to joyne with Philip to fight against the English, and that hee now is att Saconett; and they promise to surprise him, if they can, as soon as they returne home; they owned, alsoe, that diners of the Saconett Indians were killed in the fight att Narragausett.

After some time of consideration of the foregoing debate, the councell came to this conclusion, that they would return this answare: —

Wee take notice of youer tender soe farr as to waite for further probation of youer fidellitie; and in order vnto further experience and knowlidge theref, doe appoint you to returne to youer associates againe, and to procur them to our army now abroad; and that you all psonally ingage with our commander incheiffe respecting the puises, and to be att his dispose in reference vnto improucing any of you in the psent expedition against the enimic; and that such as are not improved shall surrender vp theire armses to Major Bradford, our commander in cheiffe aforsaid; and, alsoe, that such murdering Indians amongst you that have bin actine in crewelty and hostillitie vpon any of our English in the takeing away of theire lines and destroying theire estates in a murderous way shalbe delivered vp vnto the English; and, likewise, that you shall not harbour or retaine any strangers of our enimies that may or shall endeanor to shelter themselves amongst you. 1676.

28 June. Winslow, Gou#,

The councell alsoe proposed, that if the said Peter, Awashunckes son, wer willing, that hee should stay as a hostage; to which hee replyed, hee was willing to stay vntill further and matture knowlidge can be taken of their efidelitie.

In fine, they subjecting themselues and theire estates to his ma^{tic} the Kinge of England, &c´e, our dread soû, and to this collonic, it was promised and engaged vnto them by the councell, that they shall have a place assigned them for theire p-sent residence in peace; and incase the warr doe sease, and that they approve themselves in faithfulness, peace, and quietnes, and reall to theire ingagements to the English, they shall have a place assigned them for theire improvement and subsistence for longer time and continewance, or otherwise to be disposed of as the councell shall see meet.

*Att the Court of his Matt held att Phymouth the 7th of July, 1676.

7 July. [*141.]

Before Josiah Winslow, Esq. Gouernor, John Alden, Thomas Hinckley, Constant Southworth, John Freeman, and James Cudworth, &c.

IN reference vnto the issueing of a difference between John Doten and the executors and ouerseers of the last will of Jacob Cooke, deceased, and the rest of the children concerned in that estate, touching fine pounds demanded by the said Doughtey, comitted to the finall determination of this

7 July. WINSLOW, GOU'R. Court, this Court, haueing heard and considered theire mutuall pleas, doe order, that the said John Doughty shall haue alowed vnto him by the sonnes that enjoy the lands of the said Jacob Cooke pportionable to theire respective pites by them enjoyed, either two acrees of the marsh lying together out of the six acrees lying att Joneses Riuer, or forty shillings in current New England mony, and forty shillings more to him in curent country pay out of the estate belonging to the sisters according to theire respective pites, and this to be a finall end of the said difference.

Joseph Bartlett stands bound vnto this Court in the penall sume of forty pounds sterling. The condition, that wheras the said Joseph Bartlett hath obtained letters of adminnestration to adminnester on the estate of Katheren Fallowell, late of Plymouth, widdow, deceased, if, therfore, the said Joseph Bartlett doe pay or cause to be payed all such debts and legacyes as are justly due and payable vnto any pson or psons from the said estate, soe far and by equall proportions as the estate will amount vnto, and keep a faire accoumpt of the said adminnestration, and be reddy to gine in the accoumpt vnto the Goft and Court of New Plymouth when required, and sane and keepe harmles and vndamnifyed the said Goft and Court from any damage that may acrew vnto them by his said adminnestration, that then the said adminnestration to be void and of non effect, or otherwise to remaine in full force, strength, and vertue.

The 12th of June, anno 1676, senerall Indians, a fite wheref were sent in by Major Bradford, with others brought in by a smale fity of ours that issued out as scouts, were convented before the councell, such of them as were accused of workeing vusufferable mischeiffe ypon some of ours.

The first of them in questian was a saluage named Wotnehpo, allies Tuchpo, whoe was questianed with three pticulars or articles.

- Why hee fled out of his confines, which hee was injoyned to keep on paine of death, wherin if hee obediently had stayed, hee might have bine safe; to which hee made little answare to ppose.
- 2. Was in reference vnto his abusing our Goû by fraud and falshood, indeauoring to pswade him that there would be noe need to send forth an army, forasmuch as Phillips men had deserted him, see as hee had very few left with him except old men and boyes; to which hee could say nothinge.
- 3. Was in reference to his goeing too and continewing with our open bloody enimies all the time of the warrs hither vnto, in which time see mayny crewill and hostile villanies haue bin acheined; neither could hee defend this,

Att the same time three other Indians appeared before the councell, whose names were Woodcocke, and Quanapawhan, and one called John Num; the two former were accused by an Indian squa, that they were psent and actors in that bloody murder of Mistris Sarah Clarke, on the 12th of March before the date heerof; and these two accused John Num of the same fact; and they all, ypon examination, confessed thay were psent at the comitting of that horred murder and outrage, and soe had a hand as coe ptenors therin; the last named, John Num, owned, alsoe, that hee was of that companie that murdered Jacob Michell and his wife and John Pope; and soe centance of death was pronounced against them, which accordingly emediately was executed.

Now, forasmuch as the councell had before this engaged to scuerall Indians, desirous to come in and tender themselues to mercye, that they should find fanor in see docing, it was fully made knowne to such Indians as were then psent that the said engagement was to be understood with exception against such as by murder as abouesaid had see acted, and not against such as killed his enimic in the feild in a souldier like way.

[*142.]

*The three Indians fore named, some little time before theire centance, accused Keweenam, an Indian sometimes lineing about Sandwich, that hee was the first instigator of Tatoson to comit the aforsaid murder, viz?, that hee went to him and certifyed him that hee had lately bin att the house of Wilham Clarke, att the Eelriuer, and that his house was slightly fortifyed, and that it was well furnished with nessesaries, and that his way would be to repaire thither now, and that on the Lords day, the folkes of the house being but three, the most of them would be gon to meeting, and they, being there, might descerne it; and incase they left a man att home or soe, they might soon dispatch him, and then they would mett with noe opposition, but might doe as they pleased, on which the night following, (this being on the last day of the weeke,) the said Tatoson went towards Plymouth, and on the morrow following, in the morning about 9 or ten of the clocke, hee with his companie did this crewill villanie.

21 July.

On the 21 of July, 1676, the said Keweenam was pseuted before the councell, and examined on the pticulars before named; but hee did not fully owne the said accusation, onely hee owned that hee was att Wilham Clarkes house a little before the facte comitted, and in companic with Tatoson the day before, which was the Satterday, the said fact being comitted on the Lord day following, and further confessed that hee held correspondency with Tatoson, one of the most notorious of our enimies, and had given him information of the weaknes of the house, both with respect to fortification and men; and withall it being manifest that hee altogether neglected to give intelligence to the English where Tatoson was, nor concerning his intensions and actions, which if hee don seasonably, it might have prevented the following mischeiffe.

21 July.
Winslow,
Gout.

Hee, the said Keeweenam, being required agains to speake, if hee had ought to say for himselfe, hee had free libertie, but said little or nothing to any purpose.

Whervpon the councell, considering that there three positine testimonies whoe witnessed as abouesaid, and with all diners concurring cercomstances, which haue a tendency to the clearing vp of the case, doe judge, that the said Keeweename is worthy to die, and so received the centance of death, which was, that his head should shalbe seuered from his body, which was imediately accordingly executed.

Wheras it doth appear to the Court, that two Indians, one named Thomas Hunter and the other Peter, of Teticutt, were both mutually injoyned and did engage vnto theire sachem to keep, and not imbezell, or sell, or make away certaine lands comitted to them by him, and notwithstanding, the said Peter hath lately made sale of some pte of the said land, contrary to the mind of his ptenor in this matter, vpon the complaint of the said Hunter, the Court ordereth and doth heerby prohibite the said Peter from imbezelling or any wayes makeing away any more of the said land; but that Thomas Hunter shall retaine it in his owne custody, soe as it may be improved according to the order and mind of him by whom they were betrusted with it.

*This Court remitted who Christopher Winter, vpon the forfeiture of a bond of fifty pounds currant siluer mony of New Eng, the sume of thirty pounds, retaining the sume of twenty pounds, which said twenty pounds is to be payed in currant siluer mony of New England; which said abatement is for that wheras the said Winter gaue the said bonds for his daughter, Anna Batson, her appecrance att this Court to answare for an acte of vucleanes, and shee made an escape; and wheras for what can be descerned her said escape was contrary to her fathers mind, the Court did condesend to abate pte of the said forfeiture, as aforsaid.

The condition of the aboue written obligation is such, that wheras the said Phillip Lenard is accused by Elizabeth Loc, widdow, of begetting her with child, where hee hath not yett cleared himselfe, if, therfore, hee, the said Phillip Leanard, hee, his heires, executors, adminnestrators, or assignes, shall and doe pay and make good vnto Elizabeth Loc, the mother of the child begotten as aforsaid, two shillings and six pence in good, marchantable corne, att prise currant att times of payment, or two shillings a weeke in currant siluer mony of New England, for and towards the bringing vp of the said child, vntill, if it line, it doe attaine the age of scauen yeers from the date heerof, that then the abonewritten obligation to be void and of non effect, or otherwise to remaine in full force, strength, and vertue.

*The Court, takeing notice of the free and orderly choise of M^t Nicholas Pecke to be ensigne bearer of the milletary companie of Rehoboth, de approue of and appoint the said Nicholas Pecke to be ensigne bearer of the said companie.

The condition of the aboue written obligation is such, that wheras Gorge Barlow, aboue bounden, is accused to have earyed factiously and turbulently in the towne of Sandwich, and pticularly in a puerse way against Mr John Smith, the teacher of Gods word there, if, therfore, the said Gorge Barlow shall and doe psonally appear at the Court of his matie to be holden for this goûment att Plymouth on the last Tusday in October next after the date heer-of, then and there to make further answare in reference to the prises, and not depart the said Court without lycence, that then, &c.

ing, and fiting theire shipp for the sea, theire designe vnknowne to the authoritie heer.

The honored Goû and Councell of the Massachusetts, haueing notice of such a vessell att Plymouth, ill resented it, supposeing it might be of ill consequence to the whole country, if pmitted to goe on on a privateering enterprise, which they feared, and for the preventing therof directed a letter to our honored Goû and Councell by the hands of Mr John Nelson and seuerall other marchants of Boston, therin and by them declaring the reasons of theire suspitions, viz, that wheras Blackleich, haueing bine lately att Boston, gaue noe accoumpt of himselfe and designs, but in a private way seduced a considerable companie of scamen to serue with them under a comission and prince to them unknowne, (if any,) which gaue them ground of suspition that they were in a way of piracyc.

They also signifyed, that they doubted that it would be off ill consequence to abett, harbour, or assist those whoe in shew professe an oppen enmitie to the French, our naighbours, with whom wee ought to hold, as well as wee haue received all good correspondency, as likewise the evident detriment the wee had and did dayly receive by the losse and ruñing away of theire seamen, severall of theire vessells being retarded, and others wholly discurraged from goeing on in theire lawfull designes, ypon the suspition and threats of the said Blackeleich and his adherents.

Further, they requested our Councell for theire pticular and speciall serch into the designes of the forenamed psons, and, if possible, to giue some sufficient satisfaction to his matter proclamation prohibiting any of his subjects to serue vnder any forraigne prince or state, &ê, which they had lately received, and was hitherto vnknowne to vs, and that noe pretence of forraigne comissions is allowed and favored by the said his matter proclamation. They supposed that it would be best for psent to obstruct the said vndertakers in theire further proceedings respecting the pmises, and the rather because, as it is reported, if true, that they are said to be robbers of the said vessell.

The pmises, with other pticulares of like nature considered, occationed a seizure of the said vessell and supposed comaundors in order vnto further inquiry into this matter; and the said psons before our Councell, and his mades said proclamation read in theire audience, and vpon examination it appeared, that the said John Roads had noe comission, or att least produced none, but being a debauched pson, and vnder centance of banishment for piracye from the Massachusetts goû, and had broken prison att New Yoarke, was receiued on board this vessell in a private way; and as for the master, although hee gaue good satisfaction that hee was put in comaundor of the said shipp, and impowered to improve her as a marchant man, but had noe comission made pticularly to him as a privateer or man of warr, but had thought to acte by vertue of a Duch comission graunted vnto the aforsaid Capt Daniell, which was was now rendered null and of non effect by his maties said proclamation, and was required to be surrendered vnto the custody of our Councell on that account; but hee, being not free soe to doe, tendered rather to engage before our Councell noe further to proceed by vertue of that comission because prohibited by his maties said proclamation; which ingagement indorsed on the said comission, it was further declared to be void and of non effect, onely retained by the said Capt Daniell for his defence and cecuritie, because it appeared hee had formerly acted by vertue therof.

In fine, because the motions of the fore named vndertakers with theire men and vessell was rendered very vncertaine, whether towards the French, as aforsaid, or otherwise, to the damage of the country, an imbergoe was layed on the vessell, and a cessation required of the said vndertakers from further proceeding respecting the princes vntill further eccuritie can be giuen for the saffety of theire future motions on that accoumpt; and the said John Roads comitted to durance vntill hee can be returned to New Yorke, from whence hee made his escape.

11 September. *Mr Robert Daniell.

Sir: Since it hath pleased God to visitt me in this condition, it ginecth mee great cause to beleine my dayes are not longe in this world; therfore my desire and order is, that after my death, you take possession of my shipp, James Friggett, and with all possible conveniency depart this harbour for Barbadoes, and from thence in any pt of America was her on any designe or imployment, as you shall thinke most convenient and benificiall for the owners; for I must needs confesse, that by reason of my misfortunes in the disastors of the seas, my owners cargoe being spent, you have noe other then a bare and naked shipp to worke with; yett through my good thoughts of youer industry, I doubt not but the shipp may for the future prove advantagious to them. For the better complyance with theire order, I desire that with the first you advise them of all youer proceedings, and apply youerselfe to them for further order; the which after once received, doubt not youer complyance, haveing little else to trouble you; once more requesting youer extreordinary care in the pformance of this last desire of youer loneing frind,

*.Ht the Court of his Ma^{ne} held att Plymouth, for the Jurisdiction of New Plymouth, the 30th of October, 1678.

Before Josiah Winslow, Goû,

John Aldin, James Browne, and Wilłam Bradford, Constant Southworth,

Thomas Hinckley,

Assistants, &c.

IBERTY of adminnestration is graunted to Marke Snow and John Rogers, of Eastham, to adminnester on the estate of Thomas Rogers, of Eastham aforsaid, late deceased, and to be healped therin by the advice of Mr Freeman and Capt Sparrow.

30 October. Winslow, Gov^E.

Wheras Thomas Rogers, of Eastham, adminnestrator to the estate of Leift Rogers, his father, deceased, ended his life before his said adminnestration was compleated, this Court impowers Capt Sparrow and John Rogers to compleate and finally end the said adminnestration.

James Walker,
James Wilbore, and Encrease Robinson,
derly into the towne of Taunton, and to make seizure theroffe according to order.

Wheras complaint is made by some of Taunton, that one Samuell Chinericke is come into theire towne disorderly, and contineweth there contrary to the mind of the townsmen, these are therfore to require the said Chinericke either speedily to procure their approbation to stay there, or otherwise forthwith to depart the said towne.

In reference vnto the settlement of the estate of John Sauage, of Rehoboth, deceased, the Court haue ordered, that forasmuch as the estate consists mostly in land, and scarsly enough of other estate to pay the debts, this Court haue ordered and authorised Obadiah Bowin, Samuell Luther, and Hugh Cole by advice and councell to assist the widdow, Sarah Sauage, the relict of the said John Sauage, in the disposeing and improvement of the said estate to the best advantage they can, for the payment of the debts and bringing vp of the children; and incase they be nessesitated to make sale of any of the lands for that purpose, they are heerby impowered soe to doe, it appearing to the Court that the lands were purchased, some of them to the impairing of the said estate; and incase any of the said estate is left when the debts are payed and the children brought vpp, that then the widdow being allowed the thirds, according to law, the remainder to be deuided in equall and alike proportions amongst the children then surviveing when of age.

This Court doth agree with and engage vnto Theophilus Witherill, in regard of his being disabled in the late warr soe as hee is likely to be a cripple all his dayes, the sume of three score pounds in siluer mony of New England, ten pounds therof to be payed forthwith vpon demaund, and fifty pounds the next yeer; and the said Theophilus did accept therof in full satisfaction in respect of his wound received in the late warr.

Lycence is graunted by the Court vnto Mary Williamson, whoe keepeth an ordinary att Marshfeild, to draw and sell beer, wine, and liquors, soe as 30 October. Winslow, Gor^R. shee keep good orders in her house, that soe there be noe just cause of complaint in that respect.

Samuell Dunham, of Middlebery, appeared att the latter end of this Court to demaind charges for two witnesses in a case depending betwirt John Doten, plaintiffe, against the said Samuell Dunham, defendant, but could not have them, the plaintiffe not being in the Court; therfore it resteth vntill the next Court.

*In reference vnto the settlement of the estate of Samuell Annible, late of Barnstable, deceased, the Court haue ordered, that the seate of land which was formerly Mr Thomas Allins, be and heerby is settled vpon and vnto Samuell Annible, the eldest son of the said Samuell Annible, deceased; and hee is to pay or cause to be payed vnto his sister, Anna Annible, the full and just suñe of twenty flue pounds, the one halfe in current siluer mony of New England, and the other halfe in current pay att prise current, att the delinery therof within two yeers after hee is of age; and that the youngest son, John Annible, shall haue the farme that the aged widdow Annible hath her life in and now liueth on, which was fite of the lands which formerly Anthony Annible lined on; and that hee, the said John Annible, shall likewise pay or cause to be payed to his sister, Anna Annible, the suñe of twenty flue pounds, the one-halfe in currant siluer mony of New England, and the other halfe in currant pay att prise currant, att the delinery theref within two yeers after hee comes to be of age.

And that the widdow shall haue all the moucables and all the stocke for euer, to be att her owne dispose for and towards the bringing vp of the children, hopeing that shee will haue a care to bringe them vp in a way of education as the estate will beare, and to haue all the proffits of all the lands vntill the said Samuell Annible and John Annible comes to be of age, and then the thirds in the proffits of the lands dureing her naturall life.

Wheras it doth appear to the Court, that Mistris Mary Wyatt, of Taunton, widdow, is in great nessesitic and a very low condition, in want of maintainance, notwithstanding the estate of her deceased husband came by her, these are to gine libertic, and appoint and authorise Mr James Walker, Wiltam Harvey, Senir, and Walter Dean, or any two of them, to lease out some of the lands or meddowes of the said Leiftenant Wyatt, and the pay or benifitt ariseing therby shalbe improued for the releifle of the said widdow, Mary Wyatt; and that the lands or meddowes shalbe leased out for fifty yeers, except the heire see cause to redeem it within that time; and incase the heire redeem it, hee shall pay all that the posesser hath bine att charge on it.

Wheras Capř Fuller, att his death, bequeathed a certaine house, and land, and meddow vnto his grand son, Samuell Fuller, wherin Mistris Francis Fuller hath interest vntill her death, this Court haue appointed and impowered Elder Chipman, and Thomas Huckens, and Mary Fuller, widdow, the relict of Leift Fuller, deceased, to rattify and confeirme what Mistris Francis Fuller shall doe and agree vpon in reference vnto the letting and setting forth of the said land and meddow, and they consenting to what the said Francis Fuller shall doe respecting the pmises, shalbe in full confeirmation therof for the full tearme it shalbe lett forth.

30 October. Winslow,

Wheras Hugh Stewert, adminnestrator of the estate of Thomas Phelpps, saith, that there is nothing left for seauen or eight children but an house an land, which house falleth to decay, the rent not being sufficient to keep it in repaire, the Court giues libertie to the said adminnestrator, with the advice of John Thacher and John Miller, to make sale therof, and the mony to be secured by them vntill the Court shall demand it, and see cause to order it for the good of the children.

[*196.]

*1678, October. In answare to the petition prefered to the Court by Francis Combe, and likewise the Court being informed that Samuell Fuller is in a likelyhood to be procured to teach the word of God att Middleberry, they doe approue there f; and incase hee be obtained, and be likely to settle amongst them, doe heerby signify, that they will indeauor that the propriators of the lands within that townshipp may be healpfull towards his maintainance.

Francis Combe is lycenced by the Court to keep an ordinary att his house in Middleberry for entertainment of strangers, and is allowed to draw and sell beer, wine, and liquors there, for the entertainment and refreshment of trauellers, and is heerby required to keep good orders in his house, that there arise noe cause of just blame by his negligence in that behalfe.

Taunton, the second of August, 1678.

Wee, whose names are underwritten, being warned by the constable as a jury to take the view of a child named Mary Gould, aged about foure yeers or therabouts, being found in the riner drowned, and haueing dilligently enquired into the matter, our apprehensions are, that the child came to its death by some accedent by falling in or adventuring to wade through, being taken up out of the water by its mother, and past all meanes of reconcry.
